

Join the Multifamily Council

The Multifamily Council represents builders, developers, owners, and managers of all sizes and types of multifamily housing, advocating for their interests and fostering connections within the industry. Whether members have four rentals or four thousand, they benefit from shared knowledge, best practices, and insights into industry trends.

The Council meets the first Thursday of each month at 3:30pm

Members can join for $200

Membership is open to developers, owners, investors, lenders, and service providers involved in multifamily housing in Connecticut. The Council's mission is to provide a platform for members to share ideas, address concerns, and:

- Build expertise and connections
- Advocate for productive building policies and regulations
- Prepare for new opportunities and unexpected challenges

Affiliated with the NAHB Multifamily Council, the NAHB Council offers additional resources to its members. This includes a bi-weekly update on legislative, regulatory, and economic news related to the multifamily market sector. The update is free for Multifamily Council members and available by subscription to others.

The Washington Hotline, provided by NAHB's Multifamily Council, delivers vital legislative and regulatory information, along with a monthly Multifamily Market Outlook. This outlook compiles essential economic data from NAHB economists. The hotline also features information on meetings, webinars, educational events, and multifamily-related news clips from various sources.
